

THE CAT'S CLAW

DEDICATED: To the dirt from which we come and the dirt to which we return.

PURPOSE: None, except the same pleasure that a small boy finds in throwing rocks at school house windows.

APPEALING: To your innate meanness and desire to read and see the worst about your friends, acquaintances, profs and institution.

AFTERTHOUGHT: A clean mind and a clean body—if you want them, bathe carefully before and after reading this section.

LET'S GET GOIN'!

Eleanor, has true love come into your life, or didn't you recognize it when it came? Vera, are you afraid of the baffling, perplexing mysteries of sex relationship? Miss McClain, are you discontented with the stupid lies and furtive, ashamed answers the world gives you in place of the naked, fearless truth you desire? Fannye, have you ever been really thrilled? Dorothy C., have you ever been fully satisfied? Girls, there are many of you in this shape—let me help you with my course in Secrets. You cannot afford to miss this instruction in the vitalities of life. Girls, there is more to this life than bed time stories and cheese sandwiches.

THOSE WE PITY MOST

Poor old Richards. Poor Old Woods. No one had any use for them. No one respected them. Take one look and you can read across their faces—FAILURE. Poor worn out imitations of men doing their best to get on in the world. If they had just realized one thing, they could have made good. They might have been brilliant successes. They should be told that everything depends upon strength, life, red-blooded He-Man muscle. Here's a Short Way Out—30 Days is all I need. Women Will Not Know You. Send for your marvel book—Muscular Development. It is FREE. And you girls—are you flat chested? Do ugly sagging lines rob you of your feminine charm? If you will use my dainty way—you can be re-made. I have the system and all you have to do is to let it be put into use. A pleasure to follow my directions. Call today before it is too late, upon—

LONELY HEARTS I HAVE A SWEETHEART FOR YOU

Homer, let us arrange a romantic correspondence for you. Greasy, meet your sweetheart thru the high class social correspondence club. Clyde, this club is for refined lonely people with members everywhere. Clarence, your love words will be strictly confidential. Tiny, we have them all sizes. Lyndon, some of our girls are rich. Mr. Lippman, ve haf nice chewish goils. Albert, our Dutch mammas can make home brew like nobody. Our club has been a great success and married off many who thot they would never have a chance. Joe Taylor for instance. Pres. Evans and Mr. Kidd are still prominent members of our club. Address LONELY HEARTS CO.,

Edith Armstrong, Gladys Snavely, Ruth Potts and Grace McClain—local representatives.

UNACCUSTOMED AS I AM

Harold, become popular over night—and not with a Bushy saxaphone. How many times have you seen Bull Johnson get up and say, "I--er--er--a just don't know-a-a-what to--a--say, but---" Positively never. Johnson is a graduate of our school. And Freshman Dunlap—have you ever heard that coming young man say so and so can tell you more about it—no—not even if so and so could. Dunlap was one of our stars. Learn to rub your chin, tweak you ear and fiddle with your glasses in a business like manner as does Dean Speck. Get that knack of keeping assembly straining for every word as does Pres. Evans. Cultivate that musical twang of which Dr. Nolle is an artist. In four weeks you can sweep them off their feet. Spend 20 min. a day on our course and the president will find room at the top for you. Buy a Wonders With Words from Vincent Fromen.

AND IN CONCLUSION

The purpose of the Cat's Claw is to hack a few people, perhaps, place a grain of humor in our cup of school memories, and, to get down to facts, amuse you all. The art work in this section has been done by Miss Dorothy Kenney and, in our opinion, it is the best in the history of Cat's Claws. Thereby we wish to express our appreciation. To Bill Deason, we would like to give credit for a few ideas, and to everyone else, for the things that you have done that we have played on—thanks.

Ye Editor,

MYLTON KENNEDY.
